CHAPTER II-THE COMPETITION

5. Format and procedure of the competition

- a) The competition will be held across a span of 2 days i.e. 23rd – 24th November 2022.
- b) Lok Sabha is the only committee that would be in working during Youth Parliament.
- c) Portfolio-
 - Delegates shall mention their portfolio preferences in the registration form. CLS, GIBS holds the authority for allocation of portfolios and delegates shall be notified with the portfolio via official email id.
 - Portfolios will be given on the basis of prior experience.
 - Once the portfolio is provided the delegate would be provided with a background guide by an email from CLS, GIBS. If the delegate doesn't receive the mail they shall inform the organizing team of CLS, GIBS prior to the competition. The organizing committee shall not be responsible if the information is not provided.
 - No request for the change of the portfolio would be entertained.
- d) Only Governmental/Parliamentary/Law Commission Reports/ International Reports would be taken as official. Other Newspaper reports, International Reports, NGO findings/Studies, etc. can be brought up for debate but would hold no official value.
- e) Rules of Procedure-
 - Roll Call
 - The Lok Sabha Speaker will take the attendance before the sessions starts through roll call and the members have to give their attendance as “Present” on their microphone. Roll Call will be taken on the member's portfolio before the start of session on both the days and all the members are to take part in the Roll Call.

- Note to Delegates: As the session begins in committee all the delegates will be identified by their allotted portfolios and not by their own name. For smooth functioning of committee delegates are hence expected to maintain the anonymity.

- Opening Statements

- The Opening statement will be presented by the Minister in Charge (MIC) before the House. After his presentation further statement will be allowed on the floor from the members by the Speaker of the House.
- The members will be delivering an opening statement after the presentation of MIC. The default speakers' time for this shall be 120 seconds can be extended up to 180 seconds.
- After every speech, members are obligated to yield the floor back to the Executive Board/Speaker.
- The Executive Board/Speaker will direct the members to submit statements.
- The number of statements to be submitted will be decided by the Executive Board/Speaker depending on the time.
- The option of raising placards of their respective portfolios would be used by the delegates to speak up.

- Establishing the sessions

- The session will be established by passing an order by the Speaker of the House for public session.

- Public Session

- In order to discuss various sections of the agenda, a separate time frame is allotted for the members to put their views on the floor of the house.
- A public session can be of 120 minutes but the individual speaker's time will be maximum 2 minutes 30 seconds only.
- As the public session is open for general visitors and in presence of the media, the members are requested to maintain parliamentary decorum.

- Zero Hour
 - Students are quite accustomed to see members of Parliament asking questions during the Question Hour. That's how Parliament begins its day when it's in session. Apart from the Question Hour, Parliament allocates additional time slot for the members to discuss issues.
 - Zero Hour – Rules & Regulations for the purpose of this conference Members wishing to raise matters of public importance during the “Zero Hour” need to give notice to the executive board before the Zero hour starts. The notice should clearly state the subjects they want to raise. The executive board is the final authority that can either reject or accept such request.
 - Minimum 12 and maximum 20 matters will be allowed to be raised during the Zero Hour. Again, it is the executive board who decides which subjects are to be discussed and in what order.
 - The total time allocated for Zero Hour would ideally be 2 hours wherein a member gets three minutes to raise the issue. Moreover, a member is allowed to make only one Zero Hour request.

- Question Hour
 - The question hour will be of 2 hours in total where each speaker's timing will be decided by the Speaker/ EB.
 - The members are urged to listen carefully to whatever statements are made by different members throughout the day and send the questions through chits to the speaker right from the start of session till the question hour begins.
 - The questions can pertain to anything discussed in the short period discussions or something said during the opening statements. The members should restrict their questions to the agenda at hand.
 - The discussion will be on the topic placed by the MIC in the opening statement.

- f) Points
 - Point of Personal Privilege (PP)
 - A Representative may rise to a Point of Personal Privilege if a matter impairs him/her from participating fully in council activities.

- The Executive Board persons shall try to effectively address the reason of impairment.
 - Personal Privilege may only interrupt a speaker if the Representative speech is inaudible. Otherwise, the Representative rising on the Point of Personal Privilege must wait till the end of the speech to raise the Point.
 - The member should raise his/her placard to the EB to take part in Point of Personal Privilege during Question Hour. Speaker/ EB will allot time to each applicant speaker according to the session time available.
- Point of Order (PO)
 - A Representative may rise to a Point of Order if he finds a factual flaw in the speech of the delegate speaker (Through message to the EB).
 - This point may not interrupt the concerned delegate speaker.
 - The Executive Board will rule on the validity of the point immediately (Through chits sent to them by concerned delegates).
 - A Point of Order ruled dilatory by the Executive Board may not be appealed.
- Point of Information (PI)
 - A Representative may rise to a Point of Information if he/she wishes to ask a question or clarification to the delegate speaker.
 - This point may not interrupt a delegate speaker.
 - This point is only valid at the time of the opening statements.
- Right of Reply (RR)
 - A Representative whose personal integrity has been impugned by another Delegate's comments may rise to a Right of Reply.
 - Disagreement with the content of a Delegate's speech is not grounds for a Right of Reply.
 - The Executive Board will recognize the Right of Reply at his/her discretion as well as decide on how to resolve the motion.
 - Right to reply may not interrupt a delegate speaker but should be addressed the moment he/she has finished his/her speech.

- Executive Board shall formulate the rules for Right of Reply (out of order), his/her decision cannot be appealed.
 - No Representative may call for a Right of Reply on a Right of Reply.
 - “PLEA TO FOLLOW UP” is the request appealed to EB for the continuation of cross question/cross answer after a reply.
 - Replies can be either oral or written. It is to be noted that if delegate needs the chit to get marked he/she may pass the chit via EB.
- Point of Parliamentary Inquiry (PPE)
 - A Representative may rise to a Point of Parliamentary Inquiry requesting an explanation/repetition from the Executive Board on the Rules of Procedure.
 - This point may not interrupt a Speaker.

Important Points

- For all the starred questions, the delegates are requested to send their chits to EBs with a prefix of ‘’.
- For all the un-starred questions, the prefix of ‘Bulletin’ would be used by the delegates.
- Also, while getting any type of privileges or exercising any parliamentary rights, the abbreviations mentioned along, above must be used. For e.g. Right to Reply should have a prefix ‘RR’.
- Any chits received without the prefix will not be considered.
