ABOUT SCHOLASTICUS:

Scholasticus (ISSN 0975-1157) is one of the earliest publications by the National Law University, Jodhpur established with the objective of promoting academic research and fostering debate in the field of Banking & Finance. The Journal has been re-launched after a gap of a few years and is now published under the aegis of the Centre of Studies in Banking and Finance at National Law University, Jodhpur. It is a bi-annual, double-blind student-reviewed, and edited journal, with an ambit broad enough to include issues in the fields of project finance, private equity, corporate finance, debt restructuring, capital markets, etc. The Journal has had the privilege of publishing articles from some stalwarts of the legal arena including Mr. Bahram Vakil (Founding Partner, AZB & Partners), Mr. Abir Lal Dey (Partner, Saraf & Partners), Dr. Neeti Shikha (Head, Centre for Insolvency & Bankruptcy, Indian Institute of Corporate Affairs, New Delhi), Mr. Siddharth Srivastava (Partner, Khaitan & Co.), Mr. Sudarshan Sen (Former Executive Director at Reserve Bank of India), etc. To check out our previous issues, please visit our website here. Submissions can be made by filling this form.

ABOUT THE CENTRE:

The Centre of Studies in Banking and Finance at National Law University, Jodhpur (CSBF) was established by the Reserve Bank of India in 2002. The Centre provides a platform for scholars and practitioners to exchange views on issues dealing with banking and financial systems through its Conferences, Essay Competitions, Workshops and Discussion Forums. CSBF seeks to promote discourse related to the banking sector, capital markets, and other financial services. The Journal is another venture of the Centre to associate with professionals, judges, academicians and students to discuss ideas related to the banking and finance sector.
