ABOUT

Dharmashastra National Law University

Dharmashastra National Law University, Jabalpur (DNLU) was established by the Madhya Pradesh National Law University Act 24 of 2018. The University was unveiled by the noted legal luminaries, leaders, and educationists in 2018 with a vision to be the center of excellence in legal education and research by disseminating quality education and training; nurturing vibrant legal culture through judicious practices and ethically responsible pursuits. Vibrant legal culture is the sine qua non for a developing country like ours. Our vision is to impart and disseminate the knowledge of the law and to promote the culture of research for the development and advancement of legal education. We also aim to impart specialized and systematic instructions and training to the law students, research scholars and officers performing administrative, quasi-administrative functions. The University not only aims to be a knowledge-driven institution but also a creative and wisdom driven institution.

CENTRE FOR CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

Centre for Constitutional Law

Established in 2020, the Centre for Constitutional Law (CCL) at Dharmashastra National Law University (DNLU), Jabalpur, serves as a dynamic platform for students and scholars to critically explore and engage with contemporary constitutional issues beyond the traditional classroom setting.

The Centre is guided by the academic leadership of Dr. Ashit Kumar Srivastava, Assistant Professor of Law and Director of CCL, and is powered by the enthusiasm and commitment of a dedicated team of student members. Together, they strive to foster meaningful discourse and research in the field of constitutional law.

CCL has successfully organized several impactful initiatives, including - an Online Certificate Course on Personal Data Protection Law, a Panel Discussion on Constitution Day, in collaboration with the Institute of Constitutional and Parliamentary Studies, 1st National PIL Drafting Competition, 2024, in collaboration with the Centre for Research in Environmental Law (CREL) and National Conference on Transgender Rights, titled “Transcending the Binary: Exploring Transgender Rights”.

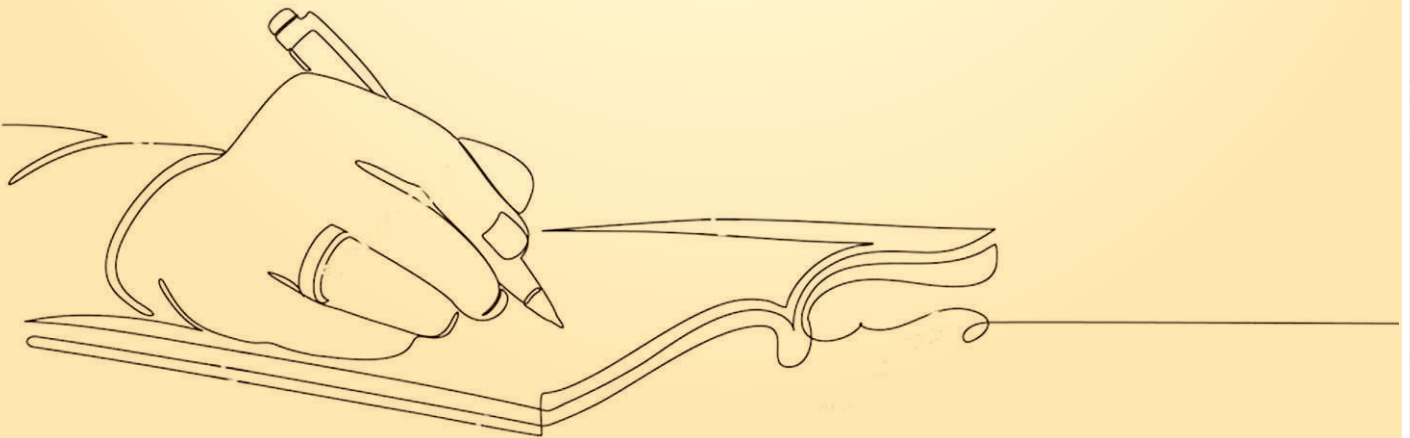

Through its academic and co-curricular endeavors, the Centre aims to nurture a deeper understanding of constitutional principles, promote constitutional literacy, and contribute to policy-oriented research and dialogue.

CENTRE FOR CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

ABOUT

Nyayanama

Nyayanama is a one-of-a-kind academic simulation that brings together the deliberative depth of a Mock Parliament/Constituent Assembly simulation and the diplomatic structure of a Model UN. This simulation challenges participants to navigate complex party politics, ideological divergences, and the intricate process of constitutional drafting all within a fictional yet realistic nation. Curated to ignite critical thinking, collaborative drafting, and constitutional debate, this flagship event of the Constitutional Law Centre offers students a unique platform to engage with the spirit of nation-building.

CENTRE FOR CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

FORMAT OF THE COMPETITION

PRELIMINARY ROUNDS

- For the preliminary round, each participant shall be required to pay a preliminary registration fee, the details of which are provided in the Registration Section of the brochure.
- All registered participants will be presented with a common situation/scenario, inspired by contemporary constitutional or socio-political issues, along with a motion. Participants must then submit a two-minute video of themselves articulating their stance on the motion, through the same Google Form.
- The video shall be recorded in a proper, well-lit environment, with clear audio and video quality.
- This round will evaluate participants on two parameters: Oratorical proficiency which includes clarity, persuasiveness & effective articulation in limited timeframe; and Critical Reasoning which includes understanding of the subject matter and engaging with it critically.
- The problem statement will be provided in a shared drive attached herein.

FORMAT OF THE COMPETITION

MAIN EVENT

- Total 40 participants will be shortlisted from the preliminary round to proceed to the main event, which will be held at the DNLU Campus. The short listed participants will be required to pay a second registration fee, which shall be inclusive of food arrangements during the course of the event.
- The participants will be provided, beforehand, with a detailed profile of a hypothetical country along with portfolios of five to six political parties. After completing desk registration at the campus, participants, through Draw of Lots, will be randomly assigned to these parties of which will be of uneven size, reflecting the dynamics of real-world political systems.
- The ideologies, roles, and functions of each party will be compiled in a portfolio, which will be released along with the Country Dossier.
- The main event will consist of four rounds, each round being accompanied by a motion. Each participant will be allotted a two-minute window to express their stance on the motion in each round.
- Prior to the commencement of each round, each party will be provided with a tailored draft of the Constitution and will be granted one hour to outline and submit their proposals. The finalized draft must be submitted to the Organizing Committee via email within the stipulated time frame.
- Extra points will be awarded to each member of the party whose proposals written in the constitution draft will get passed during the motions.
- A window pane of limited time span will be open for all the members to vote on the motion proposed by each of the parties, through secret ballot.
- In addition to the moderated sessions, the exercise will also include an unmoderated caucus, the details and rules of which shall be provided in the Rulebook.
- The Hypothetical Country Dossier/Problem statement, the Political Party Portfolios, the detailed Rulebook for the Main Event, and the motions shall be made available to the shortlisted participants in a shared drive after the completion of the preliminary screening, which will be shared via email.
