 Venue: CPJ College

ABOUT THIS COMPETITION

The National Human Rights Commission of India (NHRC), established in 1993 under the Protection of Human Rights Act, is the country's premier institution dedicated to the promotion & protection of human rights. Guided by the principles of dignity, equality & justice, the Commission has been instrumental in addressing human rights violations, recommending reforms & creating awareness across diverse sections of society. Through its inquiries, policy advice & interventions. The NHRC serves as a vital guardian of the constitutional promise of fundamental rights in a rapidly changing national & global context.

This year, CPJ College is honored to collaborate with the National Human Rights Commission in hosting its Moot Court Competition on 14th & 15th November 2025. The partnership underscores the shared vision of cultivating a generation of legal professionals who are not only skilled in advocacy but also deeply conscious of their responsibility to uphold human rights & justice.

The theme for this year's competition, "Human Rights in the Contemporary Era: Critical Concerns & Global Dynamics," reflects the urgent issues shaping law, society & justice around the world.

On 14th & 15th November 2025, CPJ College will open its doors to ideas, arguments & aspirations that will shape the future of human rights discourse. With the support of NHRC this event promises to be a vibrant platform for learning, advocacy & the pursuit of justice. We warmly welcome participants, dignitaries & audiences alike to be part of this celebration of legal scholarship & human rights.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Chanderprabhu Jain College of Higher Studies & School of Law was founded in 2007 under the aegis of the Rishi Aurobindo Educational Society (Regd.) & is affiliated with Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University. The institution offers a diverse range of programs, including 4-year undergraduate courses in Management (BBA & BBA-CAM), IT (BCA) & Law 3 year LL.B & 5-year integrated Honours programs (B.A. LL.B & BBA LL.B). Expanding its academic portfolio, the CPJ School of Law launched a 1-year LL.M program in the Academic Session 2022-23. Today, the college hosts a thriving academic community of nearly 2,500 students, guided by 80 accomplished faculty members & supported by a committed team of staff.

Situated on a well-planned one-acre campus in Narela, Delhi, CPJ provides a peaceful learning environment away from the city's hustle, encouraging intellectual development & scholarly excellence. The campus is equipped with spacious, naturally lit lecture halls, modern seminar rooms, state-of-the-art fully air-conditioned computer laboratories, & a well-stocked library offering an extensive range of academic resources. Every facility has been thoughtfully designed in alignment with the academic & infrastructural norms set by GGSIPU.

MANAGEMENT'S MESSAGE

At Chanderprabhu Jain College of Higher Studies & School of Law, we are dedicated to excellence & preparing our students to seize opportunities & create new possibilities. Our skilled faculty & supportive environment inspire students to unlock their potential & achieve their goals. Education is a transformative journey & in today's competitive world, practical knowledge & adaptability are essential. At CPJ, we strive to nurture well-rounded individuals ready to meet professional challenges with confidence.

It is with great pride that I welcome you to the National Moot Court Competition 2025, organized in collaboration with NHRC. May this event spark meaningful dialogue, collaboration & innovation as we explore the theme, "Human Rights in the Contemporary Era: Critical Concerns & Global Dynamics" in our Moot Court Competition 2025.

Dr. Abhishek Jain
General Secretary

DIRECTOR GENERAL'S MESSAGE

At CPJ School of Law, we emphasize practical learning through workshops, seminars, & competitions that prepare students for professional excellence. Our moot court activities have consistently brought together legal luminaries & aspiring advocates from across the nation, fostering a vibrant platform for experiential learning & collaboration.

Continuing this tradition, CPJ School of Law, in collaboration with the National Human Rights Commission (NHRC), is organizing the National Moot Court Competition 2025 on November 14 & 15, 2025, at the College Campus. The theme for this Competition is "Human Rights in the Contemporary Era: Critical Concerns & Global Dynamics". We anticipate wide participation from law colleges & universities nationwide, making this event an enriching & intellectually stimulating experience for all. I warmly welcome all participating teams, delegates & esteemed guests to join us in making the National Moot Court Competition 2025 a grand success!
